

PRESUBMISSION CHECKLIST FOR MANUSCRIPTS

Dear authors,

This checklist is designed to provide you with a simple way to ensure that your manuscript is ready for submission to Yearbook Telecommunications. Submissions that do not comply with this checklist may be returned to authors for amendment or returned without review depending on the degree of non-compliance.

1. The submission has not been previously published, including self-published or published in a language different from English, is original and has been written by the stated authors.
2. The article is not currently being considered for publication by any other journal and will not be submitted for such review while under review by Yearbook Telecommunications.
3. The manuscript is prepared and will be presented using the following set of files (in the Ms Word format), according to the "Manuscript Guidelines for Authors" at Yearbook Telecommunications:
 - file „Manuscript.doc(x)“ - a manuscript submitted for publication;
 - file „BlindedManuscript.doc(x)“ - a manuscript submitted for review, with no authors data;
 - file“TitlePage.doc(x)” - a cover page that includes complete information about each co-author;
 - file“Protocol.doc(x)” - scanned protocol, agreement between co-authors.
4. All authors have read and accepted all the terms of Yearbook Telecommunication, as described in the Editorial Policy and Review Policy. All authors have disclosed any possible conflicts of interest.
5. The text of manuscript has been checked by a native speaker or a professional language editing service. Spell and grammar checks have been performed.
6. If the manuscript contains material taken from other sources it must be cited appropriately and permission given by the copyright owner if it is copyrighted.
7. All Authors have read the manuscript and agree to publish it.
